

Instructor Bio:

Marlene Gruetter is a traditional feltmaker and a very enthusiastic teacher. Having received professional training by felting artists renowned both nationally and internationally she now shares her passion and knowledge to others. Her teaching credentials include fiber venues such as the Southeastern Animal Fiber Festival (SAFF), Midwest Felting Symposium (SAFF), A Wool Gathering and, The Great Lakes Fiber Festival. She also enjoys teaching at fiber guild functions, public schools and gives private lessons in her studio