Bio

Phylleri Ball, a fiber artist for 30 years, specializes in dyeing fiber and yarn, spinning, knitting, crocheting and weaving. Her passion for dyeing, using natural or synthetic dyes, results in the gorgeous palettes of Steam Valley's dyed fiber and yarn. As a shepherdess, Phylleri's focus is raising fine-fleeced animals using sustainable farming practices. She raises Colored Angora Goats, Nubian Goats and Border Leicester Cross Sheep on a mountain top in the Northern tier of Pennsylvania. She grazes about 80 head of sheep and goats in the summertime. Sharing her enthusiasm for fiber and animal husbandry makes Phylleri an inspiring teacher.
